

PREST. ALDERMAN TAKES UP THE WORK

Simple Welcome Ceremonies to Take Place Opening Day.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, VA., Sept. 12.—Dr. Edwin A. Alderman, who reached Charlottesville Thursday of last week, has informally taken up the work which devolves upon him as the chief executive of that institution.

The formal installation, with appropriate ceremonies, will take place later in the season. On the opening day of the new session, Thursday, September 15th, there will be simple ceremonies in the nature of a welcome to the president, the programme for which will be an address of notification by the rector, Charles P. Jones, of Monterey, Va., one of welcome by Dr. James Morris Page, the last chairman of the faculty, and an address of acceptance by Dr. Alderman.

The matriculation books will be opened tomorrow morning. An unusually large number of students are already on the grounds, and there is every prospect of a large increase in the attendance over last year's total, which was the second greatest in the history of the institution.

The pavilion on East Lawn, formerly occupied by Dr. Charles W. Kent, has been turned into the administrative building. The entire lower floor has been handsomely fitted up, presenting an attractive appearance. The large room, formerly used as the office of the residence, is now Dr. Alderman's private office.

TOBACCO RAISERS.

For First Time to Name Price on Their Own Product.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHATHAM, VA., September 12.—The Pittsylvania County Farmers' Association met in the courthouse Saturday afternoon for the purpose of electing a committee of the States Interstate Executive Committee of the Interstate Tobacco Growers' Association. President Samuel C. Adams, of the Interstate Association, was present and responded to calls for a speech. Mr. Adams said, in part, that much has been done, but now was the time for action, and insisted that all prejudices and personalities be laid aside and that the farmers must stand firm. For the first time the farmer would name the price of his product, tobacco, which was brought about by no competition in buying.

James S. Jones, of the Spring Garden Association, and E. T. Moorefield, of the Bachelor's Hall Association, were unanimously elected members of the Interstate States Executive Committee from Pittsylvania county.

Thirty-seven delegates, representing sixteen local associations, were present. The sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Munford, of Lynchburg, who died in Richmond Monday at 9 A. M., was received here by friends shortly thereafter. The sad news was a surprise and received with deep regret by his many friends here, where he is well known and very popular. His death was encouraging, and many felt that the crisis had passed. His father, Mrs. Balle M. Coles, of this place, has been at his bedside since very soon after the dreaded disease made its appearance, and though the best medical skill was consulted with no avail, the splendid young man succumbing to its ravages after an illness of three weeks or more.

Too Much Like War.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Sept. 12.—The members of the Washington Guards of this city, Company L, Seventeenth Virginia Regiment, returned here last night. The men were very much fatigued and did not have the fun they anticipated in the outing at Manassas, where they took part in the army manoeuvres. As they were subjected to many privations and had to undergo some hard marching in stifling dust, their experience was very much like real warfare.

TAZEWELL MYSTERY

NOW MADE CLEAR

Coroner's Jury Indicts Calvin Caudill for Ebb Henkle's Murder.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) TAZEWELL, VA., Sept. 12.—The jury of inquest which has been investigating the killing of Ebb Henkle here last Thursday night, reached a verdict this afternoon as follows: "We, the jury, find that Ebb Henkle came to his death by a gun-shot wound inflicted by Calvin Caudill on September 8, 1904."

The sessions of the jury have been attended by large crowds, owing to the mystery connected with the case. Caudill lives about five miles east of town, and on the night of the murder he went to a neighbor's house and said that he had shot a man in town and probably two or three. This evidence was introduced this evening. As soon as the verdict was returned a warrant was issued for Caudill's arrest and placed in the hands of an officer.

Henkle was a boy who was shot on the street at night and the identity of his slayer was a mystery at the time.

REPUBLICANS SWEEP STATE

have probably slight gains in both branches of the Legislature; that the body will remain strongly Republican and will probably re-elect United States Senator Eugene Hale. The vote was the heaviest cast since 1888.

While the various contests were bitter and hard-fought, general interest was fixed on the probable plurality for Mr. Cobb, the Republican candidate, the Democrats aiming to reduce it below the 33,000 of 1900 and the Republicans determining to prevent a falling off. To these ends the leaders put forth every effort, especially in the cities and large towns.

DENIES FRICTION.

Sheehan Sends Letter to State Chairman of Indiana.

(By Associated Press.) INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Sept. 12.—The following letter was received at State Democratic headquarters to-day:

"Democratic National Committee, September 9, 1904.

"Hon. William H. O'Brien, Chairman Democratic State Committee, Indianapolis, Ind.

"My Dear Sir—I have received your letter of the fifth instant, referring to the persistent effort of the Republican press to create an impression that a lack of harmony exists between Mr. Taggart and the Executive Committee, of which I am chairman. While these reports have not escaped my attention, I have not deemed it necessary to contradict them, or to notice them in any way. They are absolutely without foundation, obviously manufactured by the opposition for want of better campaign material. From the very outset there has existed between the members of the Executive Committee and the national chairman a perfect understanding and accord upon all questions relating to the management of the campaign. Nothing has occurred or can occur to disturb the harmony of our labors least of all the imaginings of the Republican press. Very truly yours,

(Signed) "WILLIAM F. SHEEHAN."

Charles L. Harrison, Pullman Conductor, Badly Wounded.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LYNCHBURG, VA., September 12.—Charles L. Harrison, of Richmond, a Pullman conductor on the Norfolk and Western, running between Norfolk and Roanoke, was accidentally shot here early this morning with a Winchester repeating gun, which was being handled by Edie E. Lipscomb, the night money clerk in the Southern Express office here.

Harrison is at the Lynchburg Sanitarium with holes through his right arm and at least nine buckshot in his right side. The chances are against the recovery of the wounded man. A negro porter, who was standing near when the gun discharged, got one of the shot through his hat.

Mr. Harrison is well and favorably known in this city, where he has resided for a number of years. He is a young man of the most excellent character, and his misfortune will cause general regret.

Council, postmaster at Genovar, Va., who is under indictment for evading the payment of a government distillery tax, will present to the United States District attorney the following letter when the case comes to trial:

Internal Revenue Service, Second District of Virginia, Collector's Office, Richmond, Va., Aug. 24, 1904.

W. E. Council, Esq., Genovar, Va.: Dear Sir—Replying to your letter of the 18th instant, you are advised that as soon as the violation of law committed by you was reported to the United States District Attorney, the matter was removed from the jurisdiction of this office, except to the collection of the tax, penalty, interest, etc., and the criminal side of the case will now have to be disposed of by the United States District attorney, unless you may desire to effect a compromise thereof, outside of court by offering to pay some amount in settlement thereof. If you desire to compromise the case in this way, you can address me further on the subject, stating what amount you are willing to pay in order to dispose of the whole case against you, such amount of course being in addition to all court costs which have been incurred and the matter will be taken under consideration.

Respectfully yours, ASA ROGERS, Collector.

Council was given time to pay his tax and was unable to do so at maturity. After his arrest and indictment, he paid the amount and then wrote the collector, seeking to have the case settled. The above letter was the reply he received.

DIED FROM HIS BURNS.

Brave Young Man Whose End Is Due to a Negro's Mistake.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ONANCOCK, VA., September 12.—Mr. Henry L. Crockett, Jr., died at the home of his father, Captain H. L. Crockett, on Onancock Creek, Sunday, from burns received in his cannery factory on East Main Street, Tuesday afternoon last. Mr. Crockett told a colored man working in the factory to turn off steam and the wrong valve was turned, thereby sending the steam and red hot water directly on Mr. Crockett, whose suffering were so great that he jumped into a tub of cold water nearby, causing the steam to affect him internally.

He was progressing nicely until last night when the internal complications appeared.

Mr. Crockett attended Goldy College, Wilmington, Del., where he met Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, whom he married last October. The past month he saved George Glick, who fell off the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic pier. His age was twenty-two years.

The funeral services will be held in the M. E. Church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

WINE OF CARDUI

1619 Addison Ave., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 23, 1903.

For three and a half years I suffered with headache, backache and most distressing bearing down pains. My physician seemed to do his best to help me, but without satisfactory results. He said that it was female trouble and a general breaking down of my system. This winter the pain became intolerable. My legs and my feet pained me and I could hardly walk or stand up. I had to neglect my housework and was in misery all the time. I finally decided to make a change, and as one of the "Ladies' Birthdays Almanacs" came to my notice and read of the cures of Wine of Cardui, I decided to try it. Five bottles changed me from a confirmed invalid to a healthy, happy woman. I am indeed most grateful to you for your splendid medicine.
